Course Introduction
This programme has been designed to reflect the growing trend towards greater integration of clinical service, research and education in the NHS, as exemplified by the development of the various Academic Health Sciences Centre models, in order to speed the development of improvements in patient care.

Duration:
5 years

Attendance:
Variable

Qualification:
MSc (Postgraduate)

Tuition Fee Costs:
£24,400.00 Academic year. First year overseas fees

Course Modules
Core modules: Trauma, theory and upper limb; trauma of the spine and lower limbs; paediatric trauma; children's orthopaedics; oncology; orthopaedics: Upper limb; orthopaedics: The spine and research methodology; orthopaedics: Lower limb; research project.

Course Additional Entry
Applicants must hold a medical qualification from a UK university or an overseas qualification of equivalent standard. General Medical Council registration and MRCS or equivalent is also required, and an NTN number (or 2 supporting references from your UK orthopaedic trainers).

Original version: http://www.studylondon.ac.uk/courses/details/24496271-trauma-and-orthopaedics